Taking Flight Together: A Message from Our Leadership

Dear Friends,

Thirty-five years ago, MCCF's founders embraced a bold idea: that people who care deeply about Marshall County could join their generosity, leadership, and vision to build stronger communities. That vision continues to guide MCCF today. Our donors bring it to life through scholarships, grants, community investments, and permanent funds that will serve generations to come. During the most recent academic year alone, MCCF awarded nearly $544,000 in scholarships—each reflecting a donor's belief in a student's potential and our shared future.

As MCCF has grown, so has our role. Stewardship remains central to our mission, while the Foundation is increasingly called upon to convene partners, attract regional and statewide investment, and help turn promising ideas into sustainable solutions. We connect donors with community needs, local vision with regional opportunity, and today's investments with tomorrow's possibilities.

The Marshall County Career Innovation Center shows what is possible when education, business, philanthropy, and public partners align. MCCF provided $150,000 in GIFT VIII funding and is helping facilitate New Markets Tax Credit financing for this nearly 25,000 square-foot investment in hands-on learning, career pathways, and workforce development.

The Regional Housing Collaborative brings together local governments, employers, housing leaders, developers, and regional partners to address another pressing challenge. Adequate housing supports family stability, workforce growth, economic development, and the future vitality of our communities.

Arts and culture also strengthen communities and contribute to a vibrant regional identity. During 2025, MCCF worked with artists, cultural organizations, community leaders, and regional partners on a shared plan and READI 2.0 projects. The process strengthened relationships and created a foundation for building organizational capacity, supporting sustainability, and advancing arts and culture throughout Marshall County and the region. Regional collaboration also positioned northern Indiana for significant investment through Indiana's Rural Health Transformation initiative. MCCF joined healthcare providers, community organizations, universities, and other partners to develop a coordinated strategy that will improve navigation, expand access to care, strengthen the rural healthcare workforce, and better connect residents with needed resources.

We are also investing in our youngest residents. United Way of Marshall County facilitates Dolly Parton's Imagination Library, providing enrolled children with a book each month from birth to age five. Thanks to generous lead gifts from Connie Danforth, more than 1,500 children are enrolled today—placing over 18,000 books into children's hands each year. An MCCF endowment offers the community a way to help sustain the program for future generations.

Lilly Endowment Inc.'s Giving Indiana Funds for Tomorrow initiative continues to catalyze community investment and MCCF's long-term growth. GIFT VIII expanded unrestricted Community Funds and supported projects including the Career Innovation Center and One Marshall County. GIFT IX offers a new $750,000 opportunity through a 2:1 match, tripling qualifying gifts and strengthening MCCF's ability to respond to changing needs.

Education, housing, health, early childhood literacy, arts and culture, and economic opportunity are deeply connected. Together, these investments help make our hometowns great places to belong, build a future, and call home. Our refreshed brand carries forward the red bird's spirit as an expression of MCCF's commitment to innovation, leadership, and progress—locally and regionally.

As we celebrate 35 years of taking flight, we are grateful for our founders, donors, volunteers, nonprofits, businesses, and community leaders. Together, we are building upon a remarkable legacy and carrying it into a new chapter of collaboration, innovation, and shared impact.

Thank you for being our partners in building strong communities—today and for generations to come.

With gratitude,

THE POWER OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Neomiah Haschel, a 2024 Graduate of Culver Community High School, is a recent recipient of a Community Foundation Scholarship. Haschel is attending the prestigious Jacobs School of Music at Indiana University Bloomington to pursue his bachelor’s degree and continue his passion of playing the timpani. Of the over 3,000 applicants, Haschel was selected to be one of the 224 undergraduates accepted into the Jacobs School of Music.

“There are not enough words or ways to express my gratitude for this opportunity. It’s only because of scholarships like these from the Marshall County Community Foundation and others, that a small town boy like me with BIG dreams, can go to Indiana University Bloomington, Jacobs School of Music and soak in all the musical knowledge and know-how for the next 4 years, and maybe more.”

- Neomiah Haschel, 2024 Graduate of Culver Community High

COMMUNITY IMPACT STORIES

MCCF invests in projects that strengthen Marshall County today while preparing for tomorrow. Through strategic funding and partnerships, these initiatives expand opportunity, support economic growth, and enhance quality of life across the community. Two key investments - the Marshall County Career Innovation Center and One Marshall County—demonstrate how collaborative, forward-thinking efforts are creating lasting impact today and for future generations.

Marshall County Career Innovation Center

A $150,000 grant from Lilly Endowment Inc. GIFT VIII funding, through the Marshall County Community Foundation, supported the development of the Marshall County Career Innovation Center - a nearly 25,000 square-foot facility expanding hands-on learning opportunities for local students. The center offers programs in fields such as agriculture, veterinary science, culinary arts, computer science, and early childhood education, with additional space for skilled trades and automotive technology. This investment will empower thousands of students with access to career pathways and real-world experience.

“We are grateful to all of the catalytic funders who came together to make this project possible. This project will reach and empower thousands of students who previously did not have access to these opportunities.”

Linda Yoder, MCCF President

One Marshall County

One Marshall County (OMC) received a $75,000 grant through Lilly Endowment Inc.'s GIFT VIII initiative and the Marshall County Community Foundation to build upon the county wide collaboration begun by the Marshall County Crossroads team.

That collaboration helped secure Marshall County's $14 million Stellar Communities designation and connect local projects to the South Bend–Elkhart region's $50 million READI 1.0 and $45 million READI 2.0 investments. Projects include The REES, Bremen GROWTH, Sand Hill Farm & The Paddocks (Culver), Water Street Townhomes (Plymouth), and the Heartland Arts Center expansion. Marshall County also benefits from Lilly Endowment's $20 million regional housing initiative, led by the community foundations serving Elkhart, St. Joseph, and Marshall counties.

OMC unites local partners around shared priorities, positioning Marshall County to attract investment, advance county wide goals, and serve as a stronger partner in the broader region.

COMMUNITY GRANT FUNDS

Unrestricted endowment funds, known at MCCF as Community Funds, provide the greatest flexibility to address Marshall County's current and emerging needs. Grants from these funds support the arts, education, health and human services, recreation, environmental initiatives, and projects that enhance quality of life.

MCCF awarded its first unrestricted grants in 1995. Since then, more than $5.6 million has been granted from Community Funds alone. Their continued growth now enables MCCF to award more than $290,000 annually to innovative and collaborative projects throughout Marshall County.

In addition to the Marshall County Community Fund, the named Community Funds listed below support MCCF's competitive grant rounds. Through June 30, 2028—or until matching funds are fully committed—eligible gifts to these funds receive $2 from Lilly Endowment Inc. for every $1 donated, tripling their impact through GIFT IX.

Thank you for helping MCCF respond to changing community needs—today and for generations to come.

SPOTLIGHT: COMMUNITY GRANT FUNDS

Kids Kingdom Daycare

A $7,500 grant from the MCCF's Community Funds supported the expansion of the after-school daycare program at Bourbon United Pentecostal Church DBA Kids Kingdom Daycare. This grant made the difference in allowing for a 20% increase in enrollment in after-school childcare, giving 45 more children access to safe, reliable care in Bourbon.

"[This grant] enabled us to support our community by offering a safe and nurturing environment where children can come after school to receive meals and continue their learning. Although rising construction costs made it impossible to move forward with a new facility, we have successfully expanded within our current location and continued to grow the program."

Maxinkuckee Players

Maxinkuckee Players

A $7,500 grant from MCCF's Community Funds helped bring "Shrek the Musical" to life, offsetting rising production costs and keeping performances affordable for local families. This support ensures live theater remains accessible to children and families across Marshall County.

"As the cost of acquiring the rights and royalties of musical productions continues to rise, as well as building supplies, publicity costs, etc., this grant has helped us to defray many of those costs. Therefore, we can keep our ticket prices down and allow more people to bring their families."

- Becky Liechty, Maxinkuckee Players

WNIT

A $10,000 grant supported new production equipment for PBS Michiana-WNIT, helping expand locally produced programming by 25% and increasing access to relevant, community-based content across the region. This investment is expected to reach approximately 630,000 viewers across Michiana, including nearly 18,000 in Marshall County.

"To increase our community impact, WNIT's board of directors has set a 5-year goal to expand locally produced programming and create content that resonates with a broader audience. These improvements enhance our current local programs and enable the launch of new initiatives that further our reach and impact."

- Gregory Giczi, former manager of WNIT

Wild Rose Moon

A $10,000 grant supported new equipment to expand video production capacity, strengthening regional arts collaborations and bringing live and recorded performances to more than 1,000 people across Marshall County and the South Bend – Elkhart region.

“The grant was pivotal in enabling us to install vital upgrades to our main stage studio, allowing us to achieve broadcast-quality video and audio productions... The Marshall County Community Foundation’s support also allowed us to expand our in-house intern program in both video and audio production. Those three interns are now starting their careers, including providing Wild Rose Moon and Radio Hour with much-needed additional technicians.”

LEGACY SOCIETY

MARSHALL COUNTY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

*In gratitude, we remember Legacy Society members
Alvin Elmore, Karen Schlosser, and Mike Mercer
who passed away in 2022, and Dorothy "Dot" B. Taiclet who passed in 2025.
Their generosity will always be celebrated.*

When you make a planned gift, you are choosing to leave a lasting legacy. The Foundation established the John Marshall Legacy Society to honor planned gift donors. Members of the Legacy Society have informed us of bequests, life insurance policies, trusts, and other end-of-life planned gifts, for the purpose of encouraging others to give back to Marshall County, our communities, and our people.

YOU CAN CREATE AN IMPACT NOW

Create a Legacy. Make a Difference.

Choosing the right planned gift depends on your personal circumstances, financial goals and your dreams for the future. Your legacy gift could support nonprofit organizations, provide scholarships or support the arts and culture, community development, education, environment, faith community or health and human services in Marshall County and beyond.

Ways to Give

- Cash gifts or pledges
- Appreciated stock or securities
- Qualified charitable distributions from an IRA
- Donor-advised fund grants
- Estate gifts & bequests
- Life Insurance
- Beneficiary designation on a retirement plan
- Charitable Gift Annuities
- Charitable Remainder & Charitable Lead Trusts

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

Dr. David Barkmeier was a brilliant scholar. Thanks to a legacy gift to the Foundation, generations of scholars will benefit from his passion for education at the highest levels.

A generous estate gift of $421,105 was added to contributions Dave made to the Foundation during his lifetime. The Dr. David R. Barkmeier Top Research Universities Scholarship Fund supports Marshall County graduates pursuing higher education at top universities. On an annual basis, scholarships totaling approximately $18,000 will be awarded to students attending either the University of Notre Dame or a university that is a member of the Association of American Universities.

Dave graduated in 1967 from Plymouth High School and then received a B.A. in psychology from Indiana University South Bend in 1972. He earned a M.A. in psychology from Western Michigan University, and later began his doctoral work at Georgia State University in Atlanta, earning his PhD from the University of Florida in 1978.

He began his teaching career the following year at Northeastern University in Boston and remained there for over 25 years until his retirement.

Dave then returned to Plymouth where he made significant contributions to the local community, especially to the city of Plymouth. Dave considered his two dogs, Pub and Yogi as members of his family and was a regular contributor to the Marshall County Humane Society.

Dr. David Barkmeier became a member of the John Marshall Legacy Society in 2013 when he made known his intentions to establish the scholarship fund at the Foundation.
